

1. Cut around the outside black line 2. Fold along middle dotted line 3. Option: place thin card between 4. Glue both pieces together then follow the rest of the instructions

PolygonPat

says

Some days "R"

better

than

others

just like they are for you and this is what my class came up with...

4. fold backwards along this line
this flap

2. cut along this line

3. fold backwards along this line
this flap

1. cut along this line

Colour in one or more PolygonPats to reflect your different moods. Display the PolygonPat that best shows how you feel today on your desk to let others know what sort of day you are having.

STUDENTS deal with issues that can cause stress and uncertainty, go to school not knowing what the day ahead will bring, are not robots or heartless, emotionless people, need to balance school and home life, just like you, would like to change our surroundings or even ourselves and experience problems and things that go wrong, or just have:-

TEACHERS some days that "R" better than others just like you.

Words by Cathy